The position made vacant by Mr. Charlock will be filled by Robert Henderson, the only applicant for the orfice. In his letter of application Mr. Henderson stated that he had resided in Honolulu since 1895, with the exception of fifteen months while he was in the Philippines, as a member of the Tenth Pennsylvania Volunteers. He has also been employed here as a customs guard, and was with the internal revenue department as deputy collector. Of late he has been with the Metropolitan Meat Company. He was recommended by Collector of Customs Stackable, Representative Hoogs and others. A motion was made that he be appointed registrar, and if necessary to make a change by reason of unfitness for the position the board could do so. NEW PLANT FOR HAWAII NEI

Dr. Jared G. Smith thinks that cas sava, a plant used for starch, will thrive in the Hawalian Islands, and intends to try some experiments along that line. In a letter from H. E. Stockbridge of Lake City, Florida, which came by the Doric, that gentleman says FUJIHARA MAY BE the starch obtained from this plant is superior to that from any other, and is a much more economical plant for this purpose than corn, wheat or potatoes. In his lette: Mr. Stockbridge speaks in part as follows: Florida, with plans for one more large season. No two are allke in machinery the same has developed its own methods and form of machinery.

"The matter of varieties is still unsettled in Florida. Practically, however, from a commercial standpoint, but one variety and that the white sweet cassava of Jamaica is grown. There is no other variety grown as an actual source of raw material for the facto-
